

The National Association for Rights Protection and Advocacy Annual Rights VIRTUAL Conference

SIX WEBINARS
To Be Presented During Fall 2021

WORKSHOP PROPOSAL DEADLINE MAY 4, 2021

The National Association for Rights Protection and Advocacy (NARPA) is seeking proposals which address strategies, ideas, programs, and emerging practices that support and promote NARPA's mission and commitment to individual rights, racial equity, justice, liberty, freedom, and dignity.

NARPA'S mission is to support people with psychiatric diagnoses to exercise their legal and human rights, with the goals of abolishing forced treatment and ensuring autonomy, dignity, and choice.

NARPA's 2021 virtual conference will offer six webinars.
The webinars will be free of charge for registrants.

But please consider making a tax-deductible contribution because NARPA does not accept government or corporate funding.

(We plan to return to a face-to-face Rights Conference in Fall 2022.
Plan to join us then as a member of our social justice community!)

The webinar presentations will be 90 minutes, including question and answer periods. NARPA will provide documentation of attendance for those wishing to obtain Social Work CEUs and Continuing Legal Education units from their professional organizations.

NARPA encourages proposals addressing racial equity and justice as well as eliminating misogyny in the mental health system.

The Application for Workshops below will also be posted at www.narpa.org.
For more information, contact NARPA at narpa4rights@gmail.com or (256) 650-6311.

Electronic submissions preferred.
